SUPERSTAR

Jesus has gotten to be a pretty hot item these days. The box office has known for quite awhile that He's been good for bringing in the bread. But now other commercial industries are picking up on the same vibes.

In the last few years, Jesus has been sort of an identity figure to hide behind -- you know, the revolutionary dropout image. He's been the "ideal" for a lot of strange freaks who have managed to paint their own projected picture of what they'd like Him to be like. The Jesus image has evolved into being whatever you want Him to be in order to protect yourself --- sort of a "Jesus facade". A lot of church cats play that role too.

It's interesting how Jesus has been making it on the top ten lately. Billboard mag says that "Jesus songs" are going to be a big deal in the seventies. And now, we've got a British rock musical with some of London's heaviest musicians screaming their heads off about Jesus.

SUPERSTAR CONT FROM FRONT PAGE

In the middle of all this commotion it might be worth taking a look at Jesus to see really where His head is at. You can be sure that not everybody who is wearing Jesus' tag is really into the trip He rapped about. The voice of Judas is still alive. Even the Jesus Christ Superstar rock opera ends on that score.

Jesus made some pretty heavy claims about Himself, about God, about the inspiration of Scripture, and about the reason for His death.
He spelled it all out pretty plain. He really didn't leave us with any alternatives to dig Him any way we choose.

Jesus didn't come just to lay down a good example for us, or to show us how to dump on the establishment. Jesus came to DO something for us that we can't do ourselves. He came to live a perfectly loving and together life so that we could plug into Him and share it with Him.

But that's not all. He came primarily to experience our death sentence for us. That's right. We're all morally guilty for egotripping and experiencing it's results - - loneliness, jealousy, depression, worry, hate, etc.

Jesus knew what we were heading for and He came to experience the ultimate result of egotripping so that we wouldn't have to. Dig?
Jesus came to DIE so that we could get spared on that score. That shows us how much He loves us! Pretty heavy, huh?

Now any kind of "Jesus trip" that doesn't acknowledge the importance of His death on our behalf is a religious bummer. It's a phony, counterfeit, imitation. Don't get sucked into a false Jesus program. There's no solution to the effects of ego-tripping in that scene.

Jesus came to liberate you, not hand you a formula. If you're gonna dig Jesus, dig His trip too. He's not just a "superstar", He's the "bright and morning star", and He wants to light you up on the inside.

Invite Jesus to liberate you and to share
His love vibration with you and through you.
He paid a pretty heavy price to make it possible. And it's because of what He has already done and accomplished for you that you can have a together life right now!

He's great.

His name is Larry Norman and that's what the critics say about him, but you can't get him to talk about himself.
He talks instead about someone else. Someone named Jesus.

He's had a million seller single "I Love You" (with PEOPLE)
He's been a professional writer for five years with the musicals "Alison" and "Birthday for Shakespeare" to his credit. He was selected for the lead role in L.A.'s "Hair". He's had write-ups in national magazines and been the guest on several television shows.

And yet I doubt if he'll talk much about it. He'd rather talk about someone else, someone named Jesus.

GOT ANY GRASS?

Every now and then a movie comes out that says something worth consideration. A lot of times, it doesn't tell us anything we don't already know. But possibly it's value is in making us more concerned about the issue.

No Blade of Grass has just arrived on the scene with all the evangelistic terror of a hell fire judgment warning. With no significant religious implications, it ends up being a very "religious" flick in relationship to the ecological crises.

The whole thrust of the picture is geared to motivating the audience to a decision -- as well as a commitment to do something about it.
In that sense, it is about as evangelistic as you can get. And judging from the audience response (everyone applauded at the end), it's appeal seems to be as successful as a Billy Graham Crusade.

The story is centered around a family in London who is trying to escape the chaos and anarchy that has broken out in the city. Because of the ecological crises, environmental pollution had caused a gigantic famine throughout the Eastern Hemisphere. As a result, the Chinese government had bombed their major cities with no alternative solution to the cannibalism and starvation that had overwhelmed
the country.

In the story the famine continues to threaten all of civilization, and fear grips the populations of other major cities that they might get the bomb treatment too. Obviously this has a tendency to shake people up, and everybody starts going weird. Life becomes a "survival of the fittest" -- either kill or be killed.

In the middle of all this, we find our little London family having quite a time getting themselves from city to country. Along the way they manage to accumulate a few other families who have the same thing in mind. They band together in a small pioneering expedition that reminds one of an Oregon Trail adventure
-- with motorcycle gangs and the military acting as Indians.

Because of the possibility of such a catastrophe happening, the movie is much more of a nightmare than your regular freak film. The director manages to expose the depravity of human nature as powerfully as William Goldings, Lord of the Flies, which is a significant issue
in light of the whole ecological problem.

Murder, rape, adultery, anarchy, and total chaos seem to be the automatic response when man's life is threatened. No Blade of Grass is an intensely disturbing film because it not only paints a believable picture of what could happen if the ecological situation isn't solved immediately. But it also exposes the true selfish nature of man when he finds himself in a pinch.

It is the solution to this last problem that seems to be the real issue. Even though nobody digs pollution, the comfortable, selfish, person will do nothing until he is threatened too, but then it might be too late. Before pollution in nature can be solved, pollution in man's nature (his soul) must get solved first.
Selfishness breeds lazy complacency, and ecology can't make it under those conditions.

It's healthy to be disturbed by this issue,
but it's even healthier to turn on to the solution. Soul pollution is our number one enemy and Jesus Christ is the only one who has the goods on that issue. If you're really interested in doing something about the ecological crises, you might want to consider getting your own spiritual famine wiped out first! Think about it!

STOP THE WAR IN YOUR HEART!

My Lai ... Cambodia ... now new bombings in the North. And with all this talk about war today, we sometimes get the idea that it was invented by our parents' generation ...

But history tells a different story:

- Since 3600 B.C. there have been 14,540 wars.
- That's an average of 2 1/2 wars per year for each of the 5,570 of recorded history!
- Since 1900 we have had more than 125 separate conflicts.
- 70 of them have been since 1940.
- The value of the physical destruction alone in all the wars would pay for a belt of gold, 33 feet thick and 100 miles wide, around the entire world.

AGE OF AQUARIUS

Yet in the face of all the horror and death, there are still some who insist that man is getting better and better every day ---the Age of Aquarius has arrived - the "golden age of world peace".

Man, come out of the caves! Stop kidding yourself that war is just the product of the wrong kind of society! Can't you see that every type of government -- whether communistic, capitalistic, socialistic, or fascist --has had its part in this never-ending blood bath? Face the truth that war really starts within man himself. Look at your own "world". How many little "wars" do you have going right now. As long as man does not experience inner peace -- inner release from his own greed, selfishness, lust, then peace in the world is a complete impossibility.

THE SOUL SOLUTION

Two thousand years ago Jesus of Nazareth offered a plan for peace that starts where the problem does ... in the human heart.

When Jesus was born, angels said, "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and peace on earth for all those pleasing Him." And when Jesus was preparing to go back to heaven, He said to His followers,

"I am leaving you with a gift -- peace of mind and heart! And the peace I give isn't fragile like the peace the world gives."

He promises that peace to all who invite Him to come into their lives to be the ruling force. Then He promises that their new lives will produce love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness and self-control.

Want that kind of peace? Then ask Him into your life to forgive your sins and to be your personal Liberator and Leader. He won't let you down.

LETTER

Dear Brothers & Sisters:

I'm 16 (almost 17) and recently everyone I know, especially my parents, are bugging me about what I want "to be" and what I'm going to "do" with my life. Well, for me there's only one answer to their questions, and that is to follow Jesus all the way.

A sister in Jesus,

Randi

Dear friends in Christ:

I attended the rock fest today in Westchester & just want you to know I thought it was beautiful. What better way is there to express ones' love for our brothers and sisters than to let the whole world in on our secret of happiness.

Matthew 7:7 says "Ask, and you will receive; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. For every one who asks will receive, and he who seeks will find, and the door will be opened to him who knocks..

Love and Peace,

Lynette

Peace!

I'm writing this letter to inquire about "Jesus People" and if there are any in this area. Me and some friends would really like to help and if there isn't a particular place then could you tell me of any "Jesus People" living in Ogden or even Salt Lake.

A guy, gave me the Hollywood Free Paper last week in Salt Lake and I just loved it. I am very excited to know people still get excited about Jesus Christ and your paper did help me to grow stronger and will help in the future for me and many others.

Any information I'd appreciate and if I could help in any way, I want to very much. Thanks!

Yours in Christ,

STEPS TO NEW LIFE

Just as there are known facts that control the physical universe, so there are spiritual facts which control your relationship with God.

STEP ONE

GOD LOVES YOU, AND HAS A NEW-LIFE FOR YOU TO EXPERIENCE.

GOD'S LOVE

John 3:16 "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish, but have everlasting life.

NEW LIFE

John 10:10b (Jesus said) "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" (A life of purpose and reality).

Why are most people not experiencing this NEW LIFE?

Because

STEP TWO

MAN IS SEPARATED FROM GOD BECAUSE OF SIN, SO HE CANNOT KNOW OR EXPERIENCE GOD'S LOVE AND NEW LIFE.

Man is trying to find a new life on his own through religion, philosophy, drugs meditation, etc.

GOD

MAN'S PROBLEM IS SEPARATION

Romans 6:23 "For the wages of sin is death." (Separation from God.)

Man exists to have fellowship with God, but because of his own stubborn self-will, man made a choice to go his own independent way and fellowship with God was broken.

THE RESULT IS SIN

Romans 3:23 "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." (Sin is rebellion against God.)

The third step gives us the only remedy for this problem of separation.

STEP THREE

JESUS CHRIST IS GOD'S ONLY REMEDY FOR THIS PROBLEM OF SEPARATION. THROUGH HIM YOU CAN KNOW GOD'S LOVE AND PLAN FOR YOUR NEW LIFE.

Romans 5:8

"But God proves His love for us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

John 14:6

"Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me."

Ephesians 2:8-9

"For by grace are you saved through faith and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works lest any man should boast."

It is not enough to know these three steps or even to believe them.

1 Timothy 2:5 L.L.

STEP FOUR

WE MUST RECEIVE JESUS CHRIST AS SAVIOUR AND LORD BY PERSONAL INVITATION.

S — Self in control of life
† — Christ outside of life
• — Interests controlled by self resulting in lack of purpose and reality

† — Christ in the life
• — Interests are under the control of God resulting in peace and joy.

HOW YOU CAN RECEIVE CHRIST

John 1:12 "But as many as received Him to them gave He the power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe in His name.

PERSONAL INVITATION

Revelation 3:20 (Jesus is speaking) "Behold I stand at the door (your heart) and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him..."

Is there any reason why you cannot receive Christ right now?

This is a suggested prayer. What God asks from you is a sincere do in your heart.

DEAR FATHER: I KNOW THAT I AM SEPARATED FROM YOU AND NEED YOUR FORGIVENESS. I BELIEVE THAT CHRIST DIED ON THE CROSS AND SHED HIS BLOOD FOR MY SINS. I AM WILLING TO TURN FROM MY WAY AND INVITE JESUS CHRIST INTO MY HEART AS MY PERSONAL SAVIOUR, AND TO FOLLOW AND OBEY HIM AS THE LORD OF MY LIFE... IN JESUS' NAME, AMEN.

Does this prayer express the desire of your heart? If so, pray it right now.

GOD'S WORD IS HIS ASSURANCE THAT CHRIST IS IN YOUR LIFE.

Did you ask Jesus Christ into your life? Were you sincere? Where is Jesus right now? Christ said that he would come into your life. Then where is He? On what basis do you know? The assurance of God Himself and His Word.

1 John 5:10-13 "Whosoever believes in the Son of God has this witness in his heart; but whosoever does not believe God has made a liar out of Him, for he has not believed what God has said as a witness about His Son. This then is the witness: God has given us eternal life, and this life is ours in His Son. Whosoever has the Son has life; whosoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. I write you this so that you may know that you have eternal life — you who believe in the name of the Son of God."
